Information Concerning Controlling Shareholders, etc.

MITSUBISHI MOTORS CORPORATION ("MMC") announces the information concerning controlling shareholders, etc. with regard to Nissan Motor Co., Ltd. ("Nissan") and Mitsubishi Corporation ("MC"), which are other related companies of MMC, as follows:

- Names, etc. of the parent company, controlling shareholders (excluding the parent company) and other related companies or their parent companies

(As of March 31, 2025)

Name	Relationship	Percentage of voting rights held (%)			Financial instruments exchanges, etc. where issued share certificates, etc. are listed
		Direct ownership	Indirect ownership	Total
Nissan Motor Co., Ltd.	Other related company	26.68	0.00	26.68	Prime Market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange
Mitsubishi Corporation	Other related company	22.23	0.00	22.23	Prime Market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange

- Position of the company within the corporate group of its parent company, etc. and other relationships between the company and its parent company, etc.

As of March 31, 2025, Nissan is the largest shareholder of MMC with 26.68% of its voting rights, and MMC is an equity-method associate of Nissan.

While respecting the independence of our management, Nissan respects our brand and history as the largest shareholder and supports the realization of growth potential. Nissan also exercises its voting rights appropriately on the appointment and dismissal of candidates for MMC's directors at the General Meeting of Shareholders after verifying their suitability for improving MMC's mid- to long-term corporate value and shareholder value. On May 25, 2016, Nissan and MMC signed an agreement on a capital and business alliance, under which we have cooperative relationships with each other in areas such as OEM of vehicles, parts and other products, reciprocal manufacturing of products, and R&D related to existing/new/advanced technologies. In addition, Nissan and MMC have built an alliance among the three companies including Renault.

As of March 31, 2025, MC is a shareholder of MMC with 22.23% of its voting rights, and MMC is an equity-method associate of MC.

MC respects the independence of its listed subsidiaries and associates, including MMC, and expects to increase their corporate and business value. At the same time, MC strives to optimize consolidated management, such as sharing its management philosophy and management strategies, in order to increase the corporate value of the entire Mitsubishi Corporation Group. MC also exercises its voting rights appropriately on the appointment and dismissal of MMC's independent directors after considering their independence from MC.

There is a business and other collaborative relationship between MC and MMC, focusing on product sales overseas.

Our thinking and measures concerning the assurance of independence are as stated below. We recognize that the independence of our management is ensured.

- With regard to the appointment and dismissal of directors and executive officers, in order to ensure independence from major shareholders, the statutory Nomination Committee, of which an independent outside director is appointed as chairperson and the majority of whose members are independent outside directors, decides on proposals for the appointment and dismissal of directors and approves proposals for the appointment and dismissal of executive officers.
- When entering into transactions with major shareholders, MMC fully considers the economic rationality as in the case of transactions with other business partners. In the resolution of the Board of Directors, the Rules of the Board of Directors stipulate that directors with special interests shall not participate in the resolution, and are applied accordingly. Multiple persons including the person responsible are checking and approving transactions other than those resolved by the Board of Directors in accordance with the DOA (Delegation of Authority) Rules.
